The Fleming Effective Teaching Model advocates for more explicit, direct teaching as opposed to the dominant, inquiry based teaching methods of today. Research by the Australian Council for Educational Research argues that explicit, direct teaching is two to three times more effective in student learning than the inquiry or problem based teaching methods that have dominated for several decades.

We Do. We Do is the second phase of the I Do WE Do YOU Do model. It involves doing tasks together. It is at this stage that you start to gradually release responsibility to your students. For procedural knowledge, you can use faded worked examples on the board and have your students help you complete the missing steps. For example, when adding common fractions, orientating the reader in a ...
