JP: Again body language is a matter of style. I like walking around, getting close to the audience if it's a big group. If it's a small meeting, the advantage of drawing on paper is that they lean closer to you to see what it is you are drawing. DC: Don't hide behind the podium, I like to get out and walk amongst the audience. Stay active!

@ chopiny: If you look at the LSBF's overall standing concerning the Msc in Finance etc., you can clearly see that its reputation is mediocre at best. As previously mentioned, the London School of Business and Finance (LSBF) is no university of itself. Its programmes are validated, but the degrees are awarded by the University of East London (which does not seem like a plus) and the Grenoble ...
