Short Sunflower Poem For Kids

"A Short Poem on Sunflower" That little something on the ground, No idea where it belongs, Steadily opens its flower, As if the flower was a sun on the Earth. Who follows the upper sun's ways, When it gets dark, It closes itself so it can hide from the dark rays. It is a flower no ordinary flower, but just a sunflower. (By Sarah Shahzad)

A Short Poem on Sunflower - Poem The Art - Expressing ...

Blossomed the sunflowers, green and gold, Eastward turning at dawn's first light Hourly drinking the sunbeams bright Westward waving a fond goodnight. Kissed by the sunshine and the dew Under the Kansas skies of blue Like unto sunflowers, the children grew. Bright eyes greeting the sun's first ray Small hands eager for work or play
