El llano en llamas (translated into English as The Burning Plain and Other Stories, The Plain in Flames, and El Llano in Flames) is a collection of short stories written in Spanish by Mexican author Juan Rulfo and first published in 1953.

El Llano en llamas - Wikipedia

First translated into English in 1967 as The Burning Plain, these starkly realistic stories create a psychologically acute portrait of poverty and dignity in the countryside at a time when Mexico was undergoing rapid industrialization following the upheavals of the Revolution. According to Ilan Stavans, the stories' "depth seems almost inexhaustible: with a few strokes, Rulfo creates a complex human landscape defined by desolation.
