The Sherlockian

In The Sherlockian, Graham Moore recounts a folktale which involves two heartbroken, confused, old British ladies. These ladies were huge Holmes fans and got it into their heads that he was a real consulting detective.

The Sherlockian is Graham Moore's debut novel. Subsequently, he has published his second book and it's as if he has hit TWO grand slam home runs in the same game. They are both just delightful.

The Sherlockian intertwines two mysteries, one drawing from the past and one in the present day, that share a common element.
