Italy's 3-5-2 versus Uruguay. In their final group game against Uruguay, Italy reverted to the 3-5-2 that served them well at Euro 2012 - a sign of their faith in the system, using it in a must-win game, although one they ultimately lost. Like we have said countless times throughout this book, tactics evolve and react to trends in the game.

In the sport of association football, each of the 11 players on a team is assigned to a particular position on the field of play. A team is made up of one goalkeeper and ten outfield players who fill various defensive, midfield, and attacking positions depending on the formation deployed. These positions describe both the player's main role and their area of operation on the pitch.
