Avalon The Return Of King

Avalon found a second life-and its current name-when we re-imagined it as an 84-room boutique hotel in 1999. Immersed in high design and situated around a boomerang-shaped pool, patio, and jewelbox Viviane restaurant and bar, you'll find a sincere kind of glamour: We think dining al fresco calls for a cool glass of champagne.

I hope in the future it can be re-made to reflect the author's version. This was a story written from the female's point of view of the King Arthur tale. My biggest disappointment was the leaving out of Kevin the second Merlin. This version of "The Mists of Avalon was an unfair telling to both Male and female.
