Hijra Le Number New

When is the Muslim New Year? In the Hijri calendar, the year starts on the 1st of the month of Muharram. Unlike the Gregorian solar calendar used in the West since 1582, the Hijri calendar is based on lunar months. In a year, there are 12 months with a duration of 29 to 30 days. Each month begins on the first crescent of a new moon.

As far as I have found out, having the operation is the most important aspects of becoming a Hijra officially. There are of course Hijras who have not had the operation, but generally they are either born as a Hijra (either a hermaphrodite or with 'not perfect' male genitalia) or will perhaps someday get the operation.
