Mr Funny Pants Michael Showalter

FUNNY PANTS is unlike any book I've ever read. It's this weird, hilarious, choose-your-own-adventure inside Michael Showalter's brain-which is, of course, brilliant.

Mr. Funny Pants: Showalter, Michael: 9780446542104: Amazon ...

Mr. Funny Pants is really less a memoir than a disorganized "graphic set" of underedited Michael Showalter musings. He attempts some meta-humour (with a "post-," "post-post-" and "pre-post-post-preface" and bits about him trying to get over his writer's block) but most of this comes off as self-indulgent, prolix, and really just boring.

Mr. Funny Pants by Michael Showalter

"With MR. FUNNY PANTS, Showalter deconstructs books down to their core, then builds them back up into a swirling core-nado. Which is a tornado made out of book cores. It's not a real thing. This book is funny."--Andy Samberg, Akiva Schaffer, and Jorma Taccone of SNL & The Lonely Island
"Showalter, Michael has written a very clever book.

Michael Showalter (Author of Mr. Funny Pants)

This was a fun little romp. I think Mr. Showalter is funnier when you can watch and listen to him delivering his material, but I got some good chuckles out of this nonetheless. When he says it's a book about trying to write a book he is not lying. This is not a memoir or an autobiography. It's a funny guy being silly, like really super silly.
