Once Walked With Gods Elves

None of which detracts from Barclay's book, you understand. Once Walked With Gods is a ripping fantasy yarn. A coup by the Ynissul, the longest lived elves, to return themselves to the top of the pecking order goes woefully wrong when they are betrayed by their human mercenaries, who set about a program of genocide.

Elves: Once Walked with Gods by James Barclay is a book I wanted to like, and certainly the premise was solid enough to catch my fancy, but I struggled to finish the story. It's not that the writing is terrible - it's just that the author's style seems to be adequate rather than enchanting, if that makes sense.
