Sermons about Saving Faith - SermonCentral.com

Saving face may justify you in the eyes of fallen man, but it will never work in justifying you before the Creator. Our passage in Galatians chapter two will reveal this truth. In Galatians 2:15-21 , Paul is transitioning from arguing his authority as an apostle to teaching on one of the foundational doctrines of Christianity, justification by faith.

An unrepentant faith is a contradiction in terms, as is a prayerless faith. Saving faith is repentant and prayerful and loves the Bible and God's people. These works — and others flowing from faith as well — do not in any way merit salvation. But they are necessary because saving faith will not be without them. Faith is Not Necessarily Strong
