The strength of this book is its illustrations. They are whimsical and interesting. The book took an unexpectedly dark turn in the middle and I didn't really understand why the Bad Seed decided to turn his life around. The book could have used a couple more pages to explain why he became a reformed character after winding up homeless with PTSD.

Oobi is an American children's television series created by Josh Selig for the Noggin channel. The show's concept is based on a training method used by puppeteers, in which they use their hands and a pair of glass eyes instead of a full puppet. The main character is a bare hand puppet named Oobi. The show's first season was a series of two-minute shorts.
