The New Calvinism Considered A

The new Calvinism has blossomed in the USA, and its influence among Evangelicals and young Fundamentalists cannot be ignored. Walker tells us that the passion for doctrine, expository preaching, and spirituality is a strong point of the new Calvinism. He commends them for their ability to use modern technology to extend their reach and influence.

A good, general introduction to new Calvinism, as a current novelty in the churches that we should not get too concerned about. So he concludes with sound advice: "The surest foundation for present and future faithfulness and fruitfulness will be a robustly confessional ecclesiology, a well-grounded churchmanship not subject to the currents of the age or the whims of the demagogues."

The New Calvinism Considered - Denny Burk

Pastor Walker touched on something that is quite important in this message. The New Calvinists have a Calvinism that is closer to Edwards's thought than Calvin's. But I would add, a misunderstanding of Edwards. In 1962 Earl Pope wrote a PH.D. dissertation with the title "New England Calvinism and the Disruption of the Prebyterian Church in 1837.

The New Calvinism Considered | SermonAudio

The book attempts first to characterize and classify the movement of new Calvinism. This in itself is a chore, I'm sure. And after he helps readers have a better sense of what he is talking about, he begins by pointing out several good qualities and positive effects of the movement. He then rounds out the... Here then, in brief, are John Piper's 12 features of the New Calvinism. 1. The New Calvinism, in its allegiance to the inerrancy of the Bible, embraces the biblical truths behind the five points of Calvinism (TULIP), while having an aversion to using the acronym (or any other systematic packaging) along with a sometimes-qualified embrace of Limited Atonement.

John Piper: 12 Features of the New Calvinism | Tim Challies

The New Calvinism movement is characterised by a careless attitude towards God's moral law. A common assertion is that Christians are no longer under God's law, but under God's grace. It follows that the Christian life is not to be governed by a set of rules, or a set of commands, or a list of do's and don'ts, for Christ's grace has set us free.
