The Seven Steps To Closure

The Seven Steps to Closure is her first novel and is pure chick lit – but for such a commercial genre this read was truly something special. I found myself LOL'ing – no, really – and won over by the side characters – in the form of psychotic pets and best girlfriends – our heroine Tara Babcock is funny and quite unco and totally endearing.

The Seven Steps to Closure started so slowly for me that I almost gave up on it; thankfully I didn't. By the time Tara, the protagonist got on that plane to India, I'd completely warmed to her, and when Matt was introduced, things took a delightfully funny and romantic turn, and I couldn't help but enjoy it.
