You can train your bearded dragon to “smile” by repeating the word “smile”, using the same tone each time he bares his teeth. This enforces the connection between the word and the expression. Offer a treat each time he “smiles” on command. Teach him to sit on command. While walking your bearded dragon, bring some treats along.

When you want your bearded dragon to come to you, all you need to do is make the shape with your hands and motion you did when feeding him. Through this process, your bearded dragon has learned to associate your scent, hand, and motions with food and positive experiences. When it senses you and your hand, it should come running! Congrats!
