Writing down the Bones: Freeing the Writer Within. Goldberg, Natalie. According to this book, writing is a process of "uneducation," rather than education. The book cites the secret of creativity as subtracting rules for writing, not adding them. Most people are baffled at how to teach this, since teaching and "uneducation" appear contradictory--but experience in Zen meditation, which is essentially a subtractive process, provides insights into the writing process.

Writing Down the Bones (Book Summary)

Writing Down the Bones gently back. When we write, many avenues open up inside us. Don't get too far afield. Stay with the details and with your direction. Don't be self-absorbed, which eventually creates vague, muddied writing. We might really get to know the BY' but forget where we are: the restaurant, the rain outside, the friend across the table.
